

Electronic musician, DJ and composer Bendik Baksaas loves mechanical repetition and cherish the human rhythm.

In the service of minimalism, he uses the sampler to reflect the sounds of the surroundings and reinterpret it in context of techno, ambient and norwegian traditional music.

A string of strong releases includes the acclaimed double album Duets, that received Natt&Dags album of the year 2018. Other highlights is the album Seine sviv, an ambient meditation on old norwegian music and Til alt ute with poet Fredrik Høyer, a maximalist work of 26 songs, redefining performative poetry as a musical element in club music.
